

Expertise

Mr. Blumenstein joined The Segal Company's Washington, DC office in 1988 as a Benefits Consultant, was named a Vice President in 1994, and Senior Vice President in 1997. He served as Office Head for the Washington, DC office of Segal until 1999 when he became National Director of Multiemployer Consulting. Mr. Blumenstein serves on the Company's Board of Directors, and is a member of Segal's senior management team. His responsibilities include oversight of short-and long-term strategy as well as development and coordination of all multiemployer consulting services. Mr. Blumenstein is a member of Segal's Multiemployer Leadership Group and oversees Segal's Communications and Fiduciary Liability Insurance Practices.

Mr. Blumenstein has served as consultant to numerous multiemployer funds, including health and welfare plans, defined benefit pension plans, and defined contribution pension plans. His current clients include a range of multiemployer plans and international union plans. Mr. Blumenstein is a frequent speaker at benefits conferences and other industry forums. He is a published author on both health care and retirement benefit topics.

Professional Background

Prior to joining The Segal Company, Mr. Blumenstein worked for a major insurance company in all areas of employee benefits.

Education/Professional Designations

Mr. Blumenstein graduated magna cum laude from the University of Michigan with a BA in Philosophy.