

The Tarpinian Group is the leading strategic communications, research, and planning group for unions and affiliated organizations in North America.

From bargaining preparation to internal communications, legislative campaigns and public relations – The Tarpinian Group has a wealth of experience unmatched by any group in the United States.

Greg Tarpinian, President, is a nationally known expert on the economics of the labor market and labor unions and a consultant to labor and political leaders throughout North America. He led the Labor Research Association and LRA Consulting for twenty-two years until 2005, when he left to become Executive Director of the Change to Win labor federation. He left Change to Win in 2008 to return to consulting through the Tarpinian Group.

Mr. Tarpinian is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, where he received his Masters Degree and completed course work and comprehensive examinations for a PhD in economics.
